April 2, 2024, Wilmington, DE – Jewish Federation of Delaware has landed 12 winning entries, including three first-place awards, in the Delaware Press Association’s 2024 Communications Contest.

The annual DPA contest is open to all professional communicators in Delaware and nearby out-of-state communities. Judged by out-of-state communications professionals to ensure impartiality, the contest provides an opportunity to compete in various print or electronic broadcasting fields. All DPA contest winners are honored at the DPA Annual Meeting and Contest Awards Banquet each spring.

The annual contest is two-tiered. The first tier of the contest is the statewide DPA competition. The second tier is the national competition, run by the National Federation of Press Women (NFPW). All DPA entries that receive first place are eligible for entry into the national competition.

Federation received recognition in the following categories:

First-Place (3)	Nonprofit Publication Nonprofit Electronic Newsletter Catalog, Manual or Handbook	Jewish Living Delaware Magazine Federation News & Notes Board Manual
2nd Place (7)	Page Design Nonprofit Video Advertising Campaign Single Advertisement Advertising Billboard Marketing Campaign Speeches	Community Study Executive Summary Why Federation? I Believe... I Believe... I Believe... 302 Stands with Israel We Stand with Israel Solidarity Rally
3rd Place	Annual Report	We Grow Stronger TOGETHER
HM	Nonprofit Website	ShalomDelaware.org

“We are honored to receive this level of recognition for our marketing communications efforts that strike an emotional chord with our valued supporters,” Jewish Federation of Delaware President & CEO, Seth J. Katzen, stated. “Our communications strive to touch the heart and stimulate the mind of how Federation makes a positive difference in Delaware & the Brandywine Valley, in Israel, and around the world every day.”
