Wilmington, DE – Jewish Federation of Delaware was named a winner in the 2025 dotCOMM Awards honoring excellence in web creativity and digital communication. Federation received Honorable Mention recognition in the Nonprofit Website category for JewishLivingDelaware.org which serves as a digital companion to its award-winning monthly magazine, Jewish Living Delaware.

JewishLivingDelaware.org was launched in January 2025 to serve as a complement to the printed edition as well as expanding its reach to a broader and younger audience. Having a digital format allows Federation to include expanded sections such as the Jewish Scene photo gallery, longer articles that may not fit print limitations, and updates in real time. It has also proven to be an effective cross platform with Federation's website at ShalomDelaware.org.

Seth J. Katzen, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Jewish Federation of Delaware stated, "Jewish Living Delaware dot org serves as the digital companion to our award-winning monthly magazine, Jewish Living Delaware, and we appreciate the award recognition from an industry leader. Connecting to our vibrant Jewish community is just a click away..."

dotCOMM Awards is administered and judged by the Association of Marketing and Communication Professionals (AMCP), one of the largest, oldest and most respected evaluators of creative work in the marketing and communication industry.
